room-service tech The latest secret to better room service: technology. At the Hotel 1000 in Seattle (right), wired minibars alert staff when specific bottles need to be replenished (doubles from $400; 206-957-1000). At the Umstead Hotel and Spa in Cary, North Carolina (slated for a January opening), room-service trays with microchips send a signal when they've been placed outside the door (doubles from $295; 866-877-4141).
