

TALKING WITH: Corporate strategic consultant and community volunteer JJ McKay. 27

MOVING IN: Aussie company building U.S. presence with new homes in South King County. 3

TECH CHALLENGE: United Way and Bill Gates urge tech execs to dig deep. 3

Puget Sound BUSINESS JOURNAL

March 18-24, 2011 | Vol. 31, No. 48 | pugetsoundbusinessjournal.com | $3.00

Business Leaders Get It.

| SCENE |

Recently spotted at business and nonprofit events around the Puget Sound area

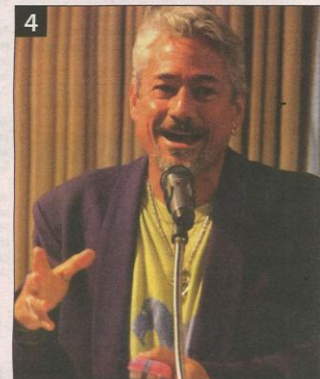

Feb. 27: Hotel 1000, in Seattle, hosts "Evening with the Stars" party to celebrate the Academy Awards, with proceeds benefiting nonprofit Reel Grrr's.

1. Karisa Scheidler, left, and JR Wikane
2. From left, John Spear, Tawny Paperd and Lori Pacchiano, with Texas. Photos courtesy of Team Photogenic

Feb. 24: Lifelong AIDS Alliance's second annual Benefit Breakfast, held at Seattle's Red Lion Hotel on Fifth Avenue, raises more than $126,000 for the Seattle nonprofit.

3. Michael Godfrey, left, president of Lifelong AIDS Alliance board, and Seattle Mayor Mike McGinn.

4. Olympics Gold Medalist Greg Louganis gives keynote speech. Songmao (Ben) Zheng photos courtesy of Lifelong AIDS Alliance

SENDING PHOTOS TO SCENE

Photos from recent business or nonprofit events may be submitted for possible publication on the Scene page. Photos must be in jpeg or tiff format, at least 200 dpi, roughly 4 inches by 5 inches and no more than 10MB in size. They should be sent within three weeks of the event. Preference is given to action shots, interesting expressions, strong composition and high-resolution images. There's an online form on pugetsoundbusinessjournal.com at <http://www.bizjournals.com/seattle/submit-photos-for-the-pbj-scene-page.html>. Or you may email photos to scene-seattle@bizjournals.com.