EAT SWEET

VITAMIN
CHOCOLATE

Health nuts who dread getting a box of chocolates for Valentine's Day can breathe a sigh of sweet relief. New Seattle company VIBRANT CHOCOLATE enriches its truffles and treats with vitamins and nutrients—such as calcium, vitamin D and omega-3s—which means gobbling them up is (mostly) guilt free. Warning: Monthly subscriptions are available. vibrantchocolate.com

WORKSHOP

Publish or Perish

Still trying to come up with a New Year's resolution? How about kickstarting that book idea you've been mulling over? Local authors Kerry Colburn and Jennifer Worick have a new Business of Books workshop: 30 DAYS TO A WINNING BOOK PROPOSAL. Learn how to research, refine, pitch and pen a proposal—and get that book out of your head and onto the page. Wednesdays, 2/1-2/22, 7 p.m. $79/class; $299/series. Hotel 1000, 1000 First Ave.; 206.957.1000; bizofbooks.com

POETRY

RHYME FOR A REASON

The talented collective known as SEATTLE POETRY SLAM has been mesmerizing local audiences since 1996. But this month marks a first for the group: a slam devoted entirely to celebrating black poets, in honor of Black History Month. Acclaimed local poet and slam master Daemond Arrindell will rock the mic, plus a slate of black spoken-word artists who are bound to astound. 2/28, 8 p.m. Free. Re-Bar; 1114 Howell St.; 206.233.9873; seattlepoetryslam.org
